The focus for today’s Mass is to The Lord comes to seek and save what was lost.

In today’s Liturgy of the Word:

The first reading speaks of God's patience and mercy toward us, his children who have strayed.

In the second reading, Paul encourages the Thessalonians to let their lives glorify Jesus.

In today's Gospel we hear about Zacchaeus, the tax collector who was found by Christ.

The intention for this Mass is for:

- 5:00 p.m. the repose of the souls of Ed Simpson and Rosemary Romano Hambrook
- 9:00 a.m. the repose of the soul of Kathy Kerkoff
- 11:00 a.m. the special intentions of the Ashieze family

PRIEST:

With joyful hearts, let us bring before the Father our petitions, knowing he loves and provides for us.

For the wellbeing of our Church
a place where people can find forgiveness and can come to give glory to our merciful God.

We pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For our elected and appointed leaders as they strive to work for peace and justice among all people.

We pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For the sick and the hurting especially Alejandro Macarag (pronounced “Ale-hand-ro Mak-are-ag”)
As they are lifted up in mind, body and spirit
by the loving compassion of those who care for them.

We pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For this faith community
as we offer Christian hospitality to visitors, newcomers
and to those seeking assistance.

We pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For those who have gone before us
Especially Father Keith Sorge (pronounced Sore-gay) and John Vigna (pronounced Vinya)
As they come to share eternal glory with Jesus in the heavenly Kingdom.

We pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For our own personal intentions,(long pause)

We pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

PRIEST: Gracious God, your mercy endures forever. Hear the prayers we place before you in faith and in trust. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
