

Holy Trinity Sunday Year A

Sunday June 20, 2011

Readings: 1) Acts 2:1-11 2) 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 3) John 20:19-23

The focus for today's Mass is that through Baptism, we were given a share in the divine life of the Trinity.In Today's Liturgy of the Word,

The first reading is from Exodus where the Lord proclaims to Moses that he is a merciful God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity.

In the second reading, Paul directs believers to support one another and live in unity, that God's love and peace may be with them.

In the Gospel, Jesus teaches that eternal life will come to those who believe in him.

GENERAL INTERCESSIONSPRIEST:

Seeking to live in love and unity with God and one another, let us offer our prayers of petition.

For Pope Benedict, Bishop Henry and for Father RaulAs they lead us to strive to be a source of comfort and encouragement for those who are struggling with their faith.

We pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For all who have been baptised,
and for vocations to all the ministries of the church
– priesthood, religious life, lay, and diaconal ministry.

We pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For those who are suffering from addictions, disability, tragedy or deprivation.
