Remembrance Day is this week....

In November, we pray for All Souls and on Remembrance Day, we offered our prayers specifically for those who fought for their country.

I will be away on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land from Nov. 9 to Nov. 17. I feel blessed to have this opportunity to walk in the footsteps of Jesus.

Upon my return, we will begin the process of installing our dedicated volunteers in their ministries.

I thank you for your ongoing support of the priesthood and of our parish.

Fr. Raul

November is the month of the deceased.....not just for those who have died in wars (Remembrance Day – November 11th). In our parish, we offer all Masses in November for those who have died in the parish this past year. Instead of individual masses, we ask parishioners to print all the names of those whom they wish to remember. We put these names in a “Book of Remembrance” and mention names during all masses in November. Although we may not be able to mention each and every name, our “Intentions” are for all of the them.

All Souls Envelopes in the entrance of the Church.

Simply fill in the page/s with as many na.m.es as you wish, slip your offering and the sheet of na.m.es in the envelope and drop in the Sunday offering basket at Mass.

(Sorry, we cannot issue a tax receipt for this offering.)

“Lord, for your faithful people life is changed not ended.”

Attention Parents

RE: Sunday with Jesus 4 & 5 yr olds.

This is not a “drop-in” program.

You must register your child.

You must be a parent volunteer as there must be several adults due to our Model Code of Conduct requiring 2 people to be in the classroom.

If there is no volunteer available, there will be no class that Sunday.

Please have your children in the classroom by 11:00 am so the program can be run effectively and in a timely manner.

There will be no late entry allowed to disrupt the class.

This is not a babysitting program – this is a religion class.

We are blessed to have dedicated and well educated people who have taken on the ministry of running this program.

We must show respect for the enthusiastic creative skills they bring to the parish through this program. Let them help you bring your child closer to Jesus by ensuring that they have the help they need from you.

Please volunteer your time so that the class can be run.

Speak to one of the teachers – bring your calendar and sign up for a few Sundays.

New Translation of the Roman Missal:

Its Implementation

(taken from St. Mary's Cochrane website)

As of ADVENT 2011 (November 27, 2011) we will notice some changes at Mass. Under the direction of The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops in consultation with the Vatican, the prayers of the liturgy have been newly translated to more accurately reflect the literal rendering in English from the original Latin texts. The changes take effect on the First Sunday of Advent, 2011. This latest 2011 translation will be the Third Edition of the Roman Missal, with the first and second editions introduced in 1974 and 1985 respectively. Below are answers to some of the most common questions you may be asking.

Why must the words in the Mass be re-translated?

Because the ancient axiom of the Church is Lex orandi, lex credendi = "What we say is what we believe."

Therefore, great care should go into the wording of liturgical texts. Since translation techniques today are more refined than they were immediately following Vatican II, this 3rd edition will be more "true" to the original prayers of the Church and more representative of the Church's "true" beliefs.

What is the purpose of the Mass? The new translation intends to: a) communicate God's Word to the assembly; b) communicate our praise and thanks to God, and c) sanctify us as disciples who bring God's love and life to our world.

Will the parts of the Mass change? Yes, but the re-wording of the Mass liturgy is NOT a new ritual to celebrate the Eucharist. Many of the re-worded sections appear in the parts proclaimed by the priest; but there are changes in the responses of the people, too.

So which parts of the Mass will change?

a) The words of the new translation will be made available:

- * on our Overhead and
- * in your 2011–2012 copy of the Sunday Missal, which is made available prior to each Advent season

b) The priest's parts have changed in the following places in the Mass:

- * the Preparation of the Gifts
- * the dialogue of the Preface
- * the Eucharistic Prayers
- * the Concluding Rites

c) The people's parts have changed as follows:

- * whenever the priest says, "The Lord be with you," our NEW response is, "And with your spirit."
- * the Penitential Rite
- * the Gloria (Glory to God)
- * the Apostles' Creed
- * the dialogue of the Preface
- * the Holy, Holy
- * the Memorial Acclamation
- * our response to "Behold the Lamb of God ..."
