

Sunday Liturgy

The focus for today's Mass is that there is so much more to God than we can ever comprehend.

The first reading tells of the wisdom of God being beside God as his craftsman at the dawn of creation. The second reading reminds us that we have peace with God through our faith in Jesus Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus teaches the disciples that the Holy Spirit will guide them in the way of all truth.

GENERAL INTERCESSION

PRIEST:

Let us present our petitions to the Father, for our needs and those of the world.

For the Church, the body of Christ in the world, may she draw all nations to God.

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For the leaders of nations, may they remember the dignity of every human being.

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For those Baptized today.

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For those who are sick in mind and body; may they be healed and strengthened.

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For the faithful departed, may they find rest and eternal life in heaven.

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For the members of this community who partake of Christ's body and blood, may we bring the word and Communion we share to the sick and homebound.

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

For our own personal intentions, (long pause),

We Pray to the Lord. People sing: Hear our prayer, hear our prayer.

PRIEST:

Loving God, we ask that you hear and answer our prayers and grant us the grace needed to lead lives that give you glory.

We pray through Christ, our Lord.
